

Peirce's concepts

Kelly Salazar
Marian Muñoz

( Cafeteria of law school UPB)

Sign: the people are eating for lunch

Representament: is part of the sign, and in this case it is the food, because enters in relation with people who are eating or are hungry.

Semiotic object: is the food that will receive.

Interpretant: Is close to what we would take as the sign's meaning. In this case, the sign means that someone is going to eat.

Firstness: this represent a possibility, without specification. Maybe the food is for his girlfriend.

Secondness: It is real and happens that the food is for his girlfriend.

Thirstiness: it is a potentially of the circumstance. she, would like the food or not.

Icon: this sign represents that after eating, people are going to drink juice.

Indices: This sign shows a physical relation of the person with the juice. It is the perception or the taste that she has from the juice. If she is drinking it fastly, it indicates that she was thirsty.

Symbols: this sign has a interpretation about restaurant or cafeteria, people see this symbols and associate it with food.

